Subpart 1A—Donations protected from disclosure

28A Interpretation

In this subpart, unless the context otherwise requires,— authorised person has the meaning set out in section 28G

donation protected from disclosure means a donation made under section 28B(2) in accordance with section 28B(3). 5

28B Method of making donation protected from disclosure

- (1) This section applies to any person who intends to make a donation in excess of $1,000 (in sum or value) to a political party or third party while preventing the disclosure of the person's identity to— 10
 - (a) the political party or third party concerned; and
 - (b) the public generally.
- (2) A person to whom this section applies may send a donation in excess of $1,000 (in sum and value) by way of a cheque, cash, or a bank draft to the Electoral Commission. 15
- (3) A donation under subsection (2) must be accompanied by a statement identifying—
 - (a) the name of the political party or third party (who) that is to receive the donation; and 20
 - (b) the full name and address of the donor; and
 - (c) if the donation made by the donor includes or comprises contributions from others, the name and address of every person who has contributed in excess of $1,000 (in sum or value). 25
- (4) The Electoral Commission may request the donor to provide any further information the Commission considers necessary to confirm the identification of the donor or other details provided by the donor, and the donor must take all reasonable steps to comply with such a request as soon as is practicable. 30

28C Maximum limit on donations protected from disclosure

- (1) The maximum amount that a political party may be paid in donations made to the Electoral Commission for the benefit of that party during a specified period is 10% (in sum or value)

28D Duty of Electoral Commission to provide advice on actual figures under section 28C

The Electoral Commission—

- (a) must, as soon as practicable after the commencement of this Act, publish on its ~~((website))~~ Internet site, and by any other means the Commission considers appropriate, guidance specifying the relevant figures that constitute the maximum amounts referred to in section 28C(1), (2), (3), and (4); and
- (b) may alter that guidance from time to time to reflect any changes in the relevant figures.

28E Duties of Electoral Commission on receipt of donation

25

- (1) The Electoral Commission, on receiving a donation under section 28B(2), must pay it to the financial agent of a political party or third party for whom it is intended, unless—
 - (a) the requirements of section 28B(3) or (4) have not been complied with; or

Struck out (majority)60 Election expense to be incurred by candidate's financial agent

No person other than the candidate's financial agent may incur an election expense in relation to a candidate activity.

New (majority)59A Meaning of candidate's election expenses

In this subpart, candidate's election expenses ((means, in relation to a candidate, the total of the following expenses)) means the total election expenses in relation to a candidate, whether paid or incurred before, during, or after the regulated period and includes—

Struck out

- (a) any election expense incurred by any person specified in section 60(a), (b), or (c); and

- (b) any election expense of an election activity that is apportioned to the candidate under section 65; and
- (c) any election expense in relation to a party advertisement deemed to be an election expense of the candidate under section 66.

60 Persons who may incur election expense in relation to candidate activity

An election expense in relation to a candidate activity may only be incurred by—

- (a) a candidate's financial agent; or
- (b) a third party's financial agent acting under an authority given under section 55(2)(a) or (3)(a); or
- (c) a party's financial agent in relation to an advertisement that the agent has authorised under section 55(3), or in relation to an election activity described in section 65(2); or
- (d) a promoter in respect of whom section 53(2)(d) applies.

61 Offence to incur unauthorised election expense

- (1) Every person is guilty of—
- (a) a corrupt practice who wilfully contravenes section 60; and
 - (b) an illegal practice who contravenes section 60 in any other case. 5
- (2) Every person who enters into an agreement or enters into an arrangement or understanding with any other person for the purpose of circumventing section 60 is guilty of an illegal practice. 10

62 Maximum amount of candidate's <total> election expenses

- (1) <The total> <A candidate's> election expenses <of a candidate> in respect of any regulated period must not exceed—
- (a) the amount of $20,000 in the case of a candidate at a general election; and 15
 - (b) the amount of $40,000 in the case of a candidate at a by-election.
- (2) The amounts in subsection (1) are inclusive of goods and services tax. 20

Struck out

- (3) For the purposes of subsection (1), it is immaterial whether an election expense is paid or incurred before, during, or after the regulated period.

63 Apportionment of election expense for candidate activity undertaken both before and within regulated period

- (1) This section applies where a candidate activity as described in paragraphs (a) to (c) of the definition of that term in section 58 is— 25
- (a) undertaken both before and within the regulated period; or 30
 - (b) undertaken before the regulated period and continues to be undertaken within the regulated period.
- (2) Where this section applies,—
- (a) the candidate activity is deemed to have been undertaken in the regulated period; but 35

- (b) the election expense <of the candidate activity> must be apportioned so that a fair proportion of the expense is attributed to being incurred within the regulated period.
- (3) Only the fair proportion of the election expense determined in accordance with subsection (2) is an election expense. 5
- 64 Apportionment of election expense of election activity between candidates
- (1) This section provides for the apportionment between candidates of the election expense of an election activity.
- (2) In this section, election activity means an activity that comprises 2 or more candidate activities. 10
- (3) The election expense of an election activity must be apportioned among the candidates in proportion to the coverage the activity provides to each candidate's candidate activity.
- (4) However, where an election activity provides a candidate's candidate activity less than 10% coverage, the candidate's apportionment of the election expenses of the election activity is not to be included as an election expense of the candidate. 15
- (5) For the purposes of this section,—
- (a) election expense of an election activity means the total of the election expense <of> <in relation to> all of the candidate activities to which this section applies; and 20
- (b) the coverage provided by an election activity must be calculated in such a manner as is appropriate in relation to the form of the activity. 25
- 65 Apportionment of election expense of election activity between candidate and party
- (1) This section provides for the apportionment between a candidate and a party of the election expense of an election activity.
- (2) In this section, election activity means an activity that comprises a candidate activity and a party activity (as defined in section 80). 30
- (3) The election expense of an election activity must be apportioned between the candidate and the party in proportion to the coverage the activity provides to the candidate's candidate activity and the party's party activity. 35
- (4) For the purposes of this section,—

- (a) election expense of an election activity means the <cost of> <election expense in relation to> the candidate activity and the <cost of> <election expense in relation to> the party activity ((as defined in section 80)); and
- (b) the coverage provided by an election activity must be calculated in such a manner as is appropriate in relation to the form of the election activity. 5
- 66 Cost of party activity deemed to be election expense of candidate in particular case
- (1) This section applies where a party advertisement features a candidate— 10
- (a) in his or her capacity as a list candidate; or
- (b) as endorsing or supporting the party, or the list submitted by the party under section 127 of the Electoral Act 1993. 15
- (2) Where the party advertisement gives more than 10% coverage to the candidate and is published in the electoral district in respect of which the candidate has been nominated, the <cost of> <election expense in relation to> the party advertisement ((as defined in section 80)) is deemed to be an election expense of the candidate. 20
- (3) However, this section does not apply where the party advertisement is published—
- (a) in the electoral district in respect of which the candidate has been nominated; and 25
- (b) ((10)) in at least 10 other electoral districts.
- (4) For the purposes of this section—
- candidate means a person who is both a constituency candidate and a list candidate
- list candidate <means a person whose name is included in the list submitted by a party under section 127 of the Electoral Act 1993> <has the meaning given to it by (section 22) section 22(1)>. 30
- (5) For the purposes of this section the coverage provided by a party advertisement must be calculated in such manner as is appropriate in relation to the form of the advertisement. 35

- 67 Offences in relation to candidate's <total> election expenses
- (1) If a candidate's <total> election expenses exceed either of the maximum amounts prescribed by section 62, the candidate's financial agent is guilty of— 5
- (a) a corrupt practice if the financial agent knew the candidate's total election expenses exceeded the maximum amount; or
- (b) an illegal practice in any other case, unless the financial agent proves that he or she took all reasonable steps to ensure that the election expenses did not exceed the maximum amount. 10
- (2) Every person who enters into an agreement or enters into an arrangement or understanding with any other person for the purpose of circumventing either of the maximum amounts prescribed in section 62(1) is guilty of <an illegal>  practice. 15
- 68 Periods for claiming and paying candidate's election expenses
- (1) A claim against a candidate's financial agent in respect of any election expense is recoverable only if it is sent to the financial agent within 20 working days after the day on which the declaration required by section 179(2) of the Electoral Act 1993 is made. 20
- (2) A claim that is sent to a candidate's financial agent in accordance with subsection (1) must be paid by the financial agent, and no other person, within 40 working days after the day on which that declaration is made, and not otherwise. 25
- (3) Every person who makes any payment in breach of subsection (2) is guilty of an illegal practice. 30
- (4) This section is subject to sections 69 and 70.
- 69 Procedure where claim disputed
- (1) If a financial agent, in the case of a claim for an election expense sent to the candidate's financial agent within the period specified in section 68(1), disputes the claim, or fails to pay the claim within the period of 40 working days specified in section 68(2), then— 35
- (a) the claim is to be treated as a disputed claim; and

- (b) the claimant may, if he or she thinks fit, within 20 working days after the expiration of that period of 40 working days, bring an action for the disputed claim in any court of competent jurisdiction.
- (2) Any sum paid by the financial agent in accordance with a judgment or order of the court in any such action is to be treated as paid within the time specified by section 68(2). 5
- 70 Leave to pay claim after time limitation
- (1) On the application of a claimant or candidate's financial agent, a District Court may make an order granting leave to a financial agent to pay— 10
- (a) a claim for election expenses sent after the period specified in section 68(1); or
- (b) a claim not paid in the period specified in section 68(2); or
- (c) a disputed claim in respect of which an action was not brought within the period specified in section 69(1)(b). 15
- (2) Any sum specified in the order granting that leave may be paid by the candidate's financial agent, and when so paid is to be treated as having been paid within the period specified in section 68(2). 20
- 71 Election expense to be invoiced
- No payment in respect of any election expense exceeding $50 may be made without an invoice.
- 72 Return of candidate's election expenses
- (1) Within 70 working days after polling day, a candidate's financial agent must file with the Chief Electoral Officer a return setting out the candidate's election expenses ~~(incurred <in relation to candidate activities undertaken> during the regulated period)~~. 25
- Struck out (majority)
- (2) Every return filed under subsection (1) must be— 30

(a) in the form required by the Chief Electoral Officer and include a statutory declaration made by the financial agent and the candidate each declaring that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief—

Struck out (majority)

- (i) the return correctly sets out all the information required to be provided; and
- (ii) a fair assessment has been made of the commercial value of any materials and advertising spaces used in candidate advertisements; and
- (b) accompanied by an auditor's report obtained under section 73, if required.

- (a) is incurred in undertaking a party activity; and
 - (b) is incurred in respect of any of the following costs:
 - (i) the cost of the preparation, design, composition, printing, distribution, postage, and ~~publication of~~ publishing a party advertisement: 15
 - (ii) the cost of any material used ~~(or applied for)~~ for or applied towards a party advertisement:
 - (iii) the cost of displaying a party advertisement on any advertising space on any land or building ~~of a specified kind~~ that is used solely or principally for commercial or industrial purposes. 20
- (2) Despite subsection (1)(b), election expense does not include the cost of—
- (a) travel:
 - (b) the conduct of any survey or public opinion poll: 25
 - (c) the labour of any person that is provided free of charge by that person:
 - (d) the replacement of any material used in respect of a party advertisement which has been destroyed or rendered unusable by 1 or more persons (other than a person acting on behalf of the party) or by the occurrence of an event beyond the control of any person acting on behalf of the party: 30
 - (e) the election expense of any of the party's candidates:

- (f) allocations of time and money made to the party by the body responsible for such allocations under the Broadcasting Act 1989:
- (g) any publications that relate to a member of Parliament in his or her capacity as a member of Parliament. 5

- 86 Offences in relation to party's <total> election expenses
- (1) If a party's <total> election expenses exceed either of the maximum amounts prescribed by section 84, the party's financial agent is guilty of—
- (a) a corrupt practice if the financial agent knew the party's total election expenses exceeded the maximum amount; or 5
 - (b) an illegal practice in any other case, unless the financial agent proves that he or she took all reasonable steps to ensure that the election expenses did not exceed the maximum amount. 10
- (2) Every person who enters into an agreement or enters into an arrangement or understanding with any other person for the purpose of circumventing either of the maximum amounts prescribed in section *<84(1)> <84> is guilty of <an illegal>  practice. 15
- 87 Periods for claiming and paying party's election expenses
- (1) No claim against a party's financial agent in respect of a party's election expense is recoverable unless it is sent to the financial agent within 20 working days after the day on which the declaration required by section 193(5) of the Electoral Act 1993 is made. 20
- (2) A claim that is sent to a party's financial agent in accordance with subsection (1) must be paid by the financial agent, and no other person, within 40 working days after the day on which that declaration is made, and not otherwise. 25
- (3) Every person who makes any payment in breach of subsection (2) is guilty of an illegal practice.
- (4) This section is subject to sections 88 and 89. 30
- 88 Procedure where claim disputed
- (1) If a financial agent, in the case of a claim for an election expense sent to the party's financial agent within the period specified in section 87(1), disputes the claim, or fails to pay the claim within the period of 40 working days specified in section 87(2), then— 35
- (a) the claim is to be treated as a disputed claim; and
 - (b) the claimant may, if he or she thinks fit, within 20 working days after the expiration of that period of 40

working days, bring an action for the disputed claim in any court of competent jurisdiction.

- (2) Any sum paid by the financial agent in accordance with a judgment or order of the court in any such action is to be treated as paid within the time specified by section 87(2). 5

89 Leave to pay claim after time limitation

- (1) On the application of a claimant or party's financial agent, a District Court may make an order granting leave to a financial agent to pay—
- (a) a claim for election expenses sent after the period specified in section 87(1); or 10
 - (b) a claim not paid in the period specified in section 87(2); or
 - (c) a disputed claim in respect of which an action was not brought within the period specified in section 88(1)(b).
- (2) Any sum specified in the order granting that leave may be paid by the party's financial agent, and when so paid is to be treated as having been paid within the period specified in section 87(2). 15

90 Election expense to be invoiced

No payment in respect of any election expense exceeding ~~£50~~ £100 may be made without an invoice. 20

91 Return of party's election expenses

- (1) Within 50 working days after the day on which the declaration required by section 193(5) of the Electoral Act 1993 is made, a party's financial agent must file with the Electoral Commission a return ~~(of the party's election expenses incurred in respect of a party activity undertaken during the regulated period))~~ setting out the party's election expenses. 25
- (2) Every return filed under subsection (1) must be—
- (a) in the form required by the Electoral Commission and include a statutory declaration made by the financial agent and the party secretary each declaring that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief— 30
 - (i) the return correctly sets out all the information required to be provided; and
 - (ii) a fair assessment has been made of the commercial value of any materials and advertising spaces used in party advertisements; and 35

- (b) accompanied by an auditor's report obtained under section 92.

92 Auditor's report on return of party's election expenses

- (1) Every financial agent must, before the Electoral Commission receives the return required by section 91, obtain from the auditor appointed under section 11 a report on the return. 5
- (2) The auditor must state in the report—
- (a) the position shown by the return in respect of the requirement that the party's total election expenses not exceed the maximum amount prescribed by section 84; and 10
- (b) either—
- (i) whether, in the auditor's opinion, the position stated under paragraph (a) is correct; or
- (ii) that the auditor has been unable to form an opinion as to whether the position stated in paragraph (a) is correct. 15
- (3) The auditor must make any examinations that the auditor considers necessary.
- (4) The auditor must specify in the report any case in which— 20
- (a) the auditor has not received from the financial agent all the information that the auditor requires to carry out his or her duties:
- (b) proper records of the party's election expenses have not, in the auditor's opinion, been kept by the financial agent. 25
- (5) The auditor—
- (a) must have access at all reasonable times to all records, documents, and accounts which relate to the party's election expenses and which are held by the financial agent; and 30
- (b) may require the financial agent to provide any information and explanations that, in the auditor's opinion, may be necessary to enable the auditor to prepare the report.

93 Nil return

35

Where a financial agent considers there is no relevant information to disclose under section 91, the financial agent must file a nil return under that section.

Struck outNew (majority)*100A Meaning of third party's election expenses

In this subpart, third party's election expenses means, in relation to a third party, the total of the following expenses:

- (a) any election expense in relation to a third party activity incurred by the third party's financial agent; and 5
- (b) any election expense of an election activity that is apportioned to the third party under section 105A.

New100A Meaning of third party's election expenses

In this subpart, third party's election expenses— 10

- (a) means the total election expenses in relation to a third party, whether paid or incurred before, during, or after the regulated period; and
- (b) includes any election expense of an election activity that is apportioned to a third party under section 105A. 15

Struck out (majority)101 Election expense to be incurred by third party's financial agent

No person other than the third party's financial agent may incur an election expense in relation to a third party activity.

New (majority)101 Persons who may incur election expense in relation to third party activity 20

An election expense in relation to a third party activity may only be incurred by a third party's financial agent.

102 Offence to incur unauthorised election expense

- (1) Every person is guilty of—
- (a) a corrupt practice who wilfully contravenes section 101; and
 - (b) an illegal practice who contravenes section 101 in any other case. 5
- (2) Every person who enters into an agreement or enters into an arrangement or understanding with any other person for the purpose of circumventing section 101 is guilty of an illegal practice. 10

103 Maximum amount of third party's <total> election expenses

- (1) <The total election expenses of a third party> <A third party's election expenses> in respect of any regulated period must not exceed— 15
- (a) the amount of <$2,000> <$4,000> in the case of election advertisements that relate to a candidate in the candidate's capacity as a candidate for an electoral district (whether or not the name of the candidate is stated); and 20
 - (b) the amount of <$60,000> <$120,000> in any case.
- (2) The amounts in subsection (1) are inclusive of goods and services tax.

107 Periods for claiming and paying third party's election expenses

- (1) A claim against a third party's financial agent in respect of any election expense is recoverable only if it is sent to the financial agent within 20 working days after the day on which the declaration required by section 193(5) of the Electoral Act 1993 is made. 5
- (2) A claim that is sent to a third party's financial agent in accordance with subsection (1) must be paid by the financial agent, and no other person, within 40 working days after the day on which that declaration is made, and not otherwise. 10
- (3) Every person who makes any payment in breach of subsection (2) is guilty of an illegal practice.
- (4) This section is subject to sections 108 and 109.

108 Procedure if claim disputed 15

- (1) If a financial agent, in the case of a claim for an election expense sent to the third party's financial agent within the period specified by section 107(1), disputes the claim, or fails to pay the claim within the period of 40 working days specified in section 107(2), then— 20
 - (a) the claim is to be treated as a disputed claim; and
 - (b) the claimant may, if he or she thinks fit, within 20 working days after the expiration of that period of 40 working days, bring an action for the disputed claim in any court of competent jurisdiction. 25
- (2) Any sum paid by the financial agent in accordance with a judgment or order of the court in any such action is to be treated as paid within the time specified by section 107(2).

109 Leave to pay claim after time limitation

- (1) On the application of a claimant or third party's financial agent, a District Court may make an order granting leave to a financial agent to pay— 30
 - (a) a claim for election expenses sent after the period specified in section 107(1); or
 - (b) a claim not paid in the period specified in section 107(2); 35 or

 - (c) a disputed claim in respect of which an action was not brought within the period specified in section 108(1)(b).

- (2) Any sum specified in the order granting that leave may be paid by the third party's financial agent, and when so paid is to be treated as having been paid within the period specified in section 107(2).
- 110 Election expense to be invoiced 5
No payment in respect of any election expense exceeding $50 may be made without an invoice.
- 111 Return of third party's election expenses
- (1) Within 70 working days after polling day, a third party's financial agent must file with the ⟨Chief Electoral Officer⟩ ⟨Electoral Commission⟩ a return setting out the ~~(election expenses)~~ ⟨of the third party in respect of⟩ ~~(⟨incurred in respect of a third party activity undertaken during⟩ the regulated period)⟩~~ third party's election expenses. 10
- (2) Every return filed under subsection (1) must be— 15
- (a) in the form required by the ⟨Chief Electoral Officer⟩ ⟨Electoral Commission⟩ and include a statutory declaration made by the financial agent and the person who made the application for the third party listing ⟨or his or her successor,⟩ each declaring that to the best of his or her knowledge and belief— 20
- (i) the return correctly sets out all the information required to be provided; and
- (ii) a fair assessment has been made of the commercial value of any materials and advertising spaces used in third party advertisements; and 25
- (b) accompanied by an auditor's report obtained under section 112, if required.
- 112 Auditor's report on return of third party's election expenses 30
- (1) Every financial agent must, before the ⟨Chief Electoral Officer⟩ ⟨Electoral Commission⟩ receives the return required by section 111, obtain from the auditor appointed under section 12 a report on the return if the third party's total election expenses exceed 25% of the maximum amount prescribed by section 103(1)(b). 35
- (2) The auditor must state in the report—

- (a) the position shown by the return in respect of the requirement that the third party's total election expenses not exceed either of the amounts prescribed by section 103; and
 - (b) either—
 - (i) whether, in the auditor's opinion, the position stated under paragraph (a) is correct; or
 - (ii) that the auditor has been unable to form an opinion as to whether the position stated in paragraph (a) is correct.
- (3) The auditor must make any examinations that the auditor considers necessary.
- (4) The auditor must specify in the report any case in which—
 - (a) the auditor has not received from the financial agent all the information that the auditor requires to carry out his or her duties:
 - (b) proper records of the third party's election expenses have not, in the auditor's opinion, been kept by the financial agent.
- (5) The auditor—
 - (a) must have access at all reasonable times to all records, documents, and accounts which relate to the third party's election expenses and which are held by the financial agent; and
 - (b) may require the financial agent to provide any information and explanations that, in the auditor's opinion, may be necessary to enable the auditor to prepare the report.

113 Nil return

Where a financial agent considers there is no relevant information to disclose under section 111, the financial agent must file a nil return under that section.

114 Offences relating to return of third party's election expenses

- (1) Every financial agent who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with section 111 is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $40,000.
- (2) Every financial agent who files a return under section 111 that is false in any material particular is guilty of—

- (a) a corrupt practice if the financial agent filed the return knowing it to be false in any material particular:
 - (b) an illegal practice in any other case unless the financial agent proves—
 - (i) that he or she had no intention to misstate or conceal the facts; and
 - (ii) that he or she took all reasonable steps in the circumstances to ensure that the information in the return was accurate.
- 115 Obligation to retain records necessary to verify return of third party's election expenses 10
- (1) A financial agent must take all reasonable steps to ensure that all records, documents, and accounts that are necessary to enable a return under section 111 to be verified are retained until the expiry of the period within which a prosecution may be commenced under this Act in relation to the return or in relation to any matter to which the return relates. 15
 - (2) Every financial agent who fails, without reasonable excuse, to comply with subsection (1) commits an offence and is liable on summary conviction to a fine not exceeding $40,000. 20
- 116 Duty of <Chief Electoral Officer> <Electoral Commission>
- If the <Chief Electoral Officer> <Electoral Commission> believes that any person has committed an offence specified in this subpart, the <Chief Electoral Officer> <Electoral Commission> must report the facts upon which that belief is based to the New Zealand Police, unless the Electoral Commission considers that the offence is so inconsequential that there is no public interest in reporting those facts to the New Zealand Police. 25 30

120 Providing money for illegal purposes

Where any person knowingly provides money for any purpose which is contrary to the provisions of this Act, or for any election expenses incurred in excess of the maximum amount allowed by this Act, or for repaying any money expended in any such payment or expenses, that person is guilty of an illegal practice.

121 Power to issue search warrants in respect of illegal practice

- (1) A search warrant may be issued under section 198 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 in respect of an illegal practice that constitutes an offence under this Act that—

10

- (a) has been committed; or
- (b) is suspected to have been committed; or
- (c) is believed to be intended to be committed.

15

- (2) Subsection (1) applies even though the offence is not punishable by imprisonment.

Struck out (majority)

- (3) Section 199 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, so far as it is applicable and with any necessary modifications, applies to any thing seized under a warrant provided for by subsection (1).

20

New (majority)

- (3) Where a search warrant is issued under section 198 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957, as provided for by subsection (1), the following provisions of that Act apply so far as they are applicable and with any necessary modifications:

- (a) section 198A:
- (b) section 198B:
- (c) section 199.

25

- (4) It is declared that a person who, under section 199 of the Summary Proceedings Act 1957 (as applied by subsection (3)), has custody of any thing seized under a <search> warrant provided for by subsection (1), may disclose any information contained in or derived from the thing only—

30

- (a) for the purposes of section 199 of that Act (as so applied); or
 - (b) for the purposes of investigating or prosecuting an offence; or
 - (c) for the purposes of an appeal or other application that relates to an offence; or 5
 - (d) for the purposes of complying with any enactment or any order or direction of a court of competent jurisdiction.
- 122 Time limit for prosecution 10
- (1) A prosecution against a financial agent under any of the following sections must be commenced within 6 months of the date on which the return was required to be filed:
- (a) section 32(1) or (2):
 - (b) section 40(1): 15
 - (c) section 50(1):
 - (d) section 75(1) or (2):
 - (e) section 94(1):
 - (f) section 114(1).
- (2) A prosecution against a financial agent or any other person for a corrupt practice or an illegal practice must be commenced— 20
- (a) within 6 months of the date on which the prosecutor is satisfied that there is sufficient evidence to warrant the commencement of proceedings; but
 - (b) not later than 3 years after the corrupt practice or illegal practice was committed. 25
- 123 Persons charged with corrupt practice may be found guilty of illegal practice
- Any person charged with a corrupt practice may, if the circumstances warrant that finding, be found guilty of an illegal practice; and any person charged with an illegal practice may be found guilty of that offence even if the act constituting the offence amounted to a corrupt practice. 30
- 124 Punishment for corrupt practice
- Every person who is guilty of any corrupt practice is liable on conviction on indictment to either or both of the following: 35
- (a) a term of imprisonment not exceeding <1 year> <2 years>:

- (b) a fine not exceeding—
 - (i) ~~⟨$40,000⟩~~ ⟨$100,000⟩ in the case of a person who is—
 - (A) a financial agent; or
 - (B) a party secretary; or
 - (ii) ~~⟨$15,000⟩~~ ⟨$40,000⟩ in the case of any other person.

125 Punishment for illegal practice

- Every person who is guilty of any illegal practice is liable on conviction on indictment to a fine not exceeding—
- (a) $40,000 in the case of a person who is—
 - (i) a financial agent; or
 - (ii) a ⟨party⟩ secretary; or
 - (b) $10,000 in the case of any other person.

10

126 Additional penalty

15

- (1) This section applies to a person who—
 - (a) is convicted of an offence under this Act; and
 - (b) has directly or indirectly received a benefit as a result of the commission of the offence.
- (2) In addition to any penalty that the court may impose under this Act in respect of the offence, the court may order the person to pay to the Crown an amount of money equal to the value of the benefit that the person has received.
- (3) For the purpose of subsection (2), the value of any benefit is assessed by the court and is recoverable in the same manner as a fine.

Subpart 2—Regulations and transitional provisions

127 Regulations relating to advertisement of a specified kind

- (1) The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council made on the recommendation of the Minister, make regulations regulating—
 - (a) all or any of the following matters in relation to an advertisement of a specified kind:
 - (i) design:
 - (ii) layout:
 - (iii) shape:
 - (iv) colour:

35

- (b) the procedures to be followed by any person before displaying an advertisement of a specified kind.
- (2) Regulations made under subsection (1)(a)—
 - (a) may be made only for the purpose of ensuring that an advertisement of a specified kind does not endanger the safety of road users; and 5
 - (b) apply only during the period beginning 2 months before polling day and ending with the close of the day before polling day.
- (3) Regulations made under subsection (1) may— 10
 - (a) impose different requirements for an advertisement of a specified kind depending on how it is published:
 - (b) override or modify any other enactment and any bylaw or other instrument.
- (4) In this section, advertisement of a specified kind has the same meaning as in section 57(2). 15
- (5) This section is subject to section 128.

128 Requirements before Minister can recommend that regulations be made

- (1) The Minister may not recommend the making of any regulations under section 127(1)(a) unless— 20
 - (a) the Minister has consulted with the Minister who is for the time being responsible for the administration of the Land Transport Act 1998; and
 - (b) the Minister is satisfied that the regulations do not restrict the rights of candidates and political parties any more than is reasonably necessary to ensure that an advertisement of a specified kind does not endanger the safety of road users; and 25
 - (c) the recommendation is agreed by at least half of the parliamentary leaders of all political parties represented in Parliament; and 30
 - (d) the members of Parliament of the political parties whose parliamentary leaders agree with the Minister's recommendation comprise at least 75% of all members of Parliament. 35
- (2) The Minister may not recommend the making of any regulations under section 127(1)(b) unless—
 - (a) the Minister has consulted with the Minister of Local Government; and 40

- (b) the recommendation is agreed by at least half of the parliamentary leaders of all political parties represented in Parliament; and
- (c) the members of Parliament of the political parties whose parliamentary leaders agree with the Minister's recommendation comprise at least 75% of all members of Parliament. 5

129 General regulations

The Governor-General may from time to time, by Order in Council, make regulations providing for such other matters as are contemplated by or necessary for giving full effect to the provisions of this Act and for its due administration. 10

130 Transitional elections

- (1) In this section, a transitional election is a general election or a by-election for which a writ is issued after the commencement of this Act but on or before 31 March 2008. 20
- (2) Any expenses incurred by or on behalf of a candidate in relation to a transitional election and any donations made to a candidate in relation to such an election are governed by sections 206 to 210A, 213, 214, and 214A of the Electoral Act 1993 instead of sections 29 to 32 and 58 to 77 of this Act. 25
- (3) Any expenses incurred by or on behalf of a party in relation to a transitional election (being a general election) are governed by sections 214B to 214E, 214I, 214K, and 214L of the Electoral Act 1993 instead of sections 80 to 96 of this Act. 30
- (4) Any advertising that relates to a transitional election is governed by sections 219, 221, 221A (as in force immediately before the commencement of this Act), 221B, 267A, and

New (majority)

- 267B of the Electoral Act 1993 instead of subpart 5 of Part 2 of this Act.
- (5) Subparts 4 and 8 of Part 2 of this Act do not apply to a transitional election.
- (6) In relation to any transitional election,— 5
- (a) sections 33 and 34 of this Act must be read as if each reference to a return of a candidate's donations were a reference to a return under section 210 of the Electoral Act 1993; and
- (b) sections 78 and 79 of this Act must be read as if each reference to a return of a candidate's election expenses were a reference to a return under section 210 of the Electoral Act 1993; and 10
- (c) section 97 of this Act must be read as if the references to a return of a party's election expenses and to an auditor's report were each, respectively, references to a return under section 214C of the Electoral Act 1993 and to a report under section 214E of that Act. 15
- (7) This section has effect despite section 153.
- 130A Return of party donations in 2008 20
- (1) This section applies to party donations (within the meaning of section 214F of the Electoral Act 1993) made to political parties in the year ending with 31 December 2007.
- (2) Sections 214F to 214I, 214K, and 214L of the Electoral Act 1993, so far as they are applicable to party donations, continue to apply to party donations to which this section applies. 25
- (3) Sections 35 to 37, 39, and 40 of this Act do not apply to party donations to which this section applies.
- (4) In relation to party donations to which this section applies, a reference to section 35 of this Act must be read as if it referred to the return required by section 214G of the Electoral Act 1993 and to the auditor's report on that return required by section 214H of that Act. 30
- (5) This section has effect despite section 153(2)(b).
