Substitution of section 82A of Act No. 24 of 1992, as inserted by section 38 of Act No. 23 of 1994

31. The following section is substituted for section 82A of the principal Act:

“Voting process at elections held simultaneously

82A. (1) Where under section 50(1) -

(a) an election for the President and an election for members of the National Assembly; and/or

(b) an election for any member of a regional council and an election for members of a local authority council, have been determined to take place on the same polling day, the voting process at polling stations shall be conducted jointly for both such elections.

(2) Notwithstanding anything to the contrary contained in this Act where, a political party has, in respect of-

(a) the elections referred to in subsection (1)(a), nominated a candidate for election to the office of President as well as candidates for election as members of the National Assembly; or

(b) the elections referred to in subsection (1)(b), nominated a candidate for election as a member of a regional council as well as candidates for election as members of a local authority council, that political party shall be entitled to appoint as election agents for a polling station only such number of persons as is prescribed in respect of any one of such elections.

(3) Where a voting process is conducted as contemplated in subsection (1), any voter who attends a polling station for the purpose of recording his or her vote, shall -

(a) if he or she desires to record a vote in respect of both the elections referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection, record such votes on the occasion of such attendance, and no voter shall, after such attendance, be allowed to record any vote at any polling station on any subsequent occasion; and

(b) irrespective as to whether he or she desires to record a vote in respect of both the elections referred to in paragraph (a) or (b) of that subsection, be required to subject himself or herself to identification with the identification mark contemplated in section 82(5) as that voter would have been required to do had the voting process been conducted in respect of one of the elections only.”.

“(2) The Director shall in accordance with the results received by him or her from returning officers in terms of subsection (1)\[(a) and the results determined by him or her in terms of subsection (1)(b)\], determine in the manner provided in Schedule 4 to the Namibian Constitution the number of candidates of each political party to be declared duly elected as members of the National Assembly.”.

Amendment of section 91 of Act No. 24 of 1992

33. The following section is substituted for section 91 of the principal Act:

“Determination and announcement of result in local authority council elections

91. (1) When at an election for members of a local authority council all the votes have been counted and the number of votes recorded for each political party taking part in such election has been determined, the returning officer concerned shall determine mutatis mutandis in the manner referred to in section 89(2), the number of candidates of a political party that is in terms of subsection (2) of this section to be declared duly elected as members of the local authority council in question, as if the election for members of that council were an election for members of the National Assembly.

(2) As soon as is practicable after the result of a local authority council election has been determined as contemplated in subsection (1), the returning officer concerned shall in the prescribed manner announce that result, by -

(a) making known the total number of votes counted and the appropriate quota determined in accordance with the provisions of that subsection and, in respect of each political party, the number of votes recorded for it and the number of seats in the council in question, if any, to which a political party shall be entitled; and

(b) declaring -

(i) those candidates who appear on the list of candidates of each political party in respect of which a number of seats has been determined and who have been nominated from that list by that political party as members of the council in question to fill the seats; and

(ii) if the number of seats determined in respect of a political party is more than the candidates available on the list of candidates of that political party, a person who qualifies to be a member of the council in question and who has been nominated in the prescribed manner in writing for that purpose by the political party and who has in writing consented to his or her nomination, to be duly elected as members of the council in question with effect from any day determined in respect of the election in question.

(3) The returning officer concerned shall as soon as is practicable after the provisions of subsection (2) of this section have been complied with, cause a written statement of the announcement made by him or her in terms of the provisions of that subsection, to be transmitted to the Commission.
(4) If there appears on any list of candidates referred to in subsection (2) of this section, the name of a person who died or was found not to qualify in relation to the council in question on or before the date of the declaration contemplated in that subsection, that name shall for the purposes of that subsection be deemed not to appear on the list in question.”.
