PART I: PRELIMINARY

1. (1) This Act may be cited as the Local Government Elections Short title Act.

(2) Subject to subsection (3), the provisions of this Act shall not apply in relation to any election held before the expiry of the interim period and the law in force immediately prior to the commencement of this Act relating to elections to a council shall continue to apply in relation to such elections until the expiry of the interim period.

(3) Nothing in this section shall be construed as to prohibit the making of any statutory instrument under this Act during the interim period for the purpose of regulating the conduct of any election following the expiry of the interim period or providing for the division of the areas of councils into wards and prescribing the boundaries of such wards for the purpose of any election following the expiry of the interim period.

Short title

Part II LOCAL GOVERNMENT ELECTORAL COMMISSION

3. (1) There is hereby established a Local Government Electoral Commission for the purpose of supervising the conduct of elections held under this Act.

(2) The Commission shall consist of a Chairman and two other members who shall be appointed by the President.

(3) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as Chairman of the Commission unless he holds or has held high judicial office.

(4) A person shall not be qualified for appointment as a member of the Commission if he is a member of the National Assembly, or a councillor, or an officer or any employee of a council.

(5) If the office of Chairman or if any other member of the Commission falls vacant or the holder of the office becomes unable for any reason to discharge his functions as a member of the Commission, the President may appoint another person qualified for appointment to be the Chairman or, a member of the Commission, as the case may be.

(6) In the exercise of its functions under this Act, the Commission shall not be subject to the direction or control of any other person or authority.

Local Government Electoral

Commission 4. The President shall appoint a Secretary to the Commission who shall discharge such functions as the Commission may direct.

Secretary to Commission 5. (1) The Commission may, by regulation regulate its own Commission procedure and confer powers or impose duties on any officer or authority of the Government or of a council for the purpose of discharging its functions.

(2) Any decision of the Commission shall require the support of the majority of its members.

(3) Subject to subsection (2), the Commission may act notwithstanding the absence of any member or any vacancy in the office of any member.

Procedure of Commission 6. (1) The Commission may appoint such election officers as it may consider necessary for the purpose of any election and, subject to the other provisions of this section, any election officer may exercise such functions relating to an election as may be prescribed by the Commission.

(2) In respect of any election, an election officer may, if so empowered by the Commission under regulations made under section eight, appoint any fit person to be an election officer and may in any case, subject to the general or special directions of the Commission, appoint any fit person to assist him in the exercise of his functions under this Act; Provided that an election officer may at any time, in such manner as may be prescribed, revoke an appointment made by him under this subsection.

(3) Every election officer shall, before exercising any of the functions of his office, take and subscribe such oath or make such affirmation in lieu of the date, as the Commission may prescribe.

(4) The Commission may at any time revoke the appointment of an election officer.

Appointment of election
officers

PART III DELIMITATION OF WARDS

9. (1) Not later than six months after the appointment of the Division of members of the Commission under section three, and whenever thereafter it is necessary to do so to give effect to the provisions of council, by statutory order, divide the area of each council into wards, defining the boundaries of the wards by reference to polling districts, and assigning names to the wards

(2) The number of wards into which the area of a council is divided shall be equal to the number of elected councillors prescribed in respect of that council by the Minister under the Local Government Act.

(3) The Commission shall exercise its powers under this section that each ward comprises one or more complete polling districts.

(4) Whenever the Minister alters the area of a council or the number of councillors of a council, the Commission shall after consultation with such council, by statutory order, make such alteration to the boundaries of the wards of such council or to the division of the area of such council into wards as may be necessary to give effect to the provisions of this section.

(5) Whenever the Commission is satisfied that there has been a material alteration in the number of registered voters. In the area of a council or of any of the wards into which such area is divided, the Commission may, after consultation with the council concerned, exercise in respect of the area of that council or any part of the council the powers conferred by this section.

Division of area of councils into ward

PART IV HOLDING OF ELECTIONS

10. (1) An ordinary election of councillors in every ward of every council throughout Zambia shall be held in 1992 and in every third year thereafter, on such date as the President shall, by statutory order, prescribe:

Provided that-

(a) a poll shall not be taken in any ward in respect of which only one candidate is validly nominated for election; or

(b) where for any reason no candidate is elected at an election in any ward further elections shall be held in the ward until a candidate is duly elected.

(2) Whenever-

(a) a new council is established; or

(b) an alteration is made in the division of the area of an existing council into wards or in the definition of the boundaries of any ward;

the President may, by statutory order, direct that any ordinary election of councillors in every ward or in any particular ward of that council shall be held on such date as may be appointed by the order.

(3) A statutory order under this section shall specify the day or days on which, and the hours within which returning officers may receive nominations of candidates for election in any ward to which such order relates.

(As amended by Act No. 26 of 1991 and No. 31 of 1993)

Disqualification of councillors

PART V ELECTION PETITION

18. (1) No election of a candidate as a councillor shall be questioned except by an election petition presented under this Part

(2) The election of a candidate as a councillor shall be void on any of the following grounds if it is proved to the satisfaction of the court upon the trial of an election petition:

- (a) that by reason of any corrupt practice committed in connection with the election or by reason of other misconduct, the majority of voters in a ward were or may have been prevented from electing the candidate in that ward whom they preferred;
- (b) subject to subsection (4), that there has been a non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to the conduct of elections, and it appears to the court that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in such provisions and that such provisions and that such non-compliance affected the result of the election;

(c) that any corrupt practice or illegal practice was committed in connection with the election by, or with the knowledge and consent or approval of, the candidate or his election agent or his polling agents; or

(d) that the candidate was at the time of his election a person not qualified or a person disqualified for election as a councillor.

(3) Notwithstanding subsection, (2) where upon the trial of an election petition, the court finds that any corrupt practice or illegal practice has been committed by, or with the knowledge and consent or approval of, any agent of the candidate whose election is the subject of the election petition, and the court further finds that such candidate has proved that-

- (a) no corrupt practice or illegal practice was committed by the candidate himself or by his election agent, or with the knowledge and consent or approval of the candidate or his election agent;
 - (b) the candidate and his election agent took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt practice or illegal practice at such election; and
 - (c) in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt practice or illegal practice on the part of the candidate or his election agent; .
- then, the court shall not, by reason only of such corrupt practice or illegal practice, declare that the election of such candidate was void.

(4) No election shall be declared void by reason only of any act or omission by an election officer in breach of his official duty in connection with an election if it appears to the court that the election was so conducted as to be substantially in accordance with the Act, and that such act or omission did not affect the result of that election. Avoidance of elections 19. An election petition may be presented to the court by one or more of the following persons:

(a) a person who lawfully voted or had a right to vote at the election to which the election petition relates;

(b) a person claiming to have had a right to be nominated as a candidate or elected as councillor at the election to which the election petition relates; or

(c) a person alleging himself to have been a candidate at the election to which the election petition relates; or

(d) the Attorney-General. Who may present election petition 20. (1) Any of the following reliefs may be claimed in any petition

(a) a declaration that the election was void; or

(b) a declaration that any Candidate was duly elected.

(2) In addition to the reliefs, specified in subsection (1), a petitioner may apply to the court, upon the trial of an election petition, for a scrutiny to be carried out by the court in such manner as the court may determine.

(3) On a scrutiny at the trial of an election petition, the following votes only shall be held invalid:

(a) the vote of any person whose name was not on the register of voters assigned to the polling station at which the vote was cast or who was not authorised to vote at such polling station under this Act;

(b) the vote of any person whose vote was procured by any corrupt practice or illegal practice;

(c) the vote of any person who committed or procured the commission of personation at the election to which the election petition relates, contrary to this Act;

(d) the vote of any person proved to have voted more than once at the election to which the election petition relates; or

(e) the vote of any person who was disqualified from voting at the election to which the election petition relates.

(4) In this section-

"scrutiny" means an inquiry as to the validity of the votes cast, number of valid votes cast, for each candidate in the election in respect of which the application for a scrutiny is made, Relief which may be claimed in election 21. (1) Every election petition shall be in such form and shall contain such matters as may be prescribed by the chief Justice.

(2) Presentation of an election petition to the court shall be made by lodging it with the Registrar in accordance with this Act.

(3) Every election petition shall be signed by the petitioner, or by all the petitioners if more than one, and shall be presented not later than thirty days after the date on which the result of the election to which it relates is duly declared.

(4) Notwithstanding subsection (3), when the election of a councillor (hereinafter referred to as "the respondent") is questioned upon an allegation of a corrupt practice or an illegal practice, the election petition may be presented-

(a) at any time before the expiry of twenty-one days after the day on which the returning officer receives the election expenses of the respondent; or

(b) if the election petition specifically alleges a payment of money or some other act to have been made or done since the day referred to in paragraph (a) by the respondent or his election agent, or with the privity of the respondent or of his election agent in pursuance or in furtherance of the corrupt practice or illegal practice alleged in the election petition, at any time within thirty days after the date of such Payment or other act.

(5) Where an election petition is presented under this section, the Registrar shall in writing so inform the Commission and the principal officer of the council to which the petition relates. Form and procedure for presentation of election petitions

22. (1) Subject to subsection (2), the Registrar shall make out a list of all election petitions presented under this Act, placing them on such list in order in which they are presented and he shall keep at his office a copy of such list which shall be open for inspection by any person making application for inspection of it. Duty of Registrar to make out list of election petitions

28. (1) On the trial of an election petition, the court may-

(a) order any person who appears to the court to have been concerned in the election to attend as a witness at such trial;

(b) examine any witness or any person who is present at such trial although such witness or person is not called as a witness by any party to the proceedings:

Provided that after such examination by the court of such witness or person, such witness or person may be cross-examined by or on behalf of the petitioner or the respondent.

(2) A person who is called as a witness at the trial of an election petition shall not be excused from answering any question relating to any offence connected with an election on the ground that the answer thereto may tend to criminate him, or on the ground of privilege:

Provided that-

(i) a witness who answers to the satisfaction of the court every question which he is required to answer under this section, and which answers may tend to criminate him, shall not be liable to prosecution for any offence committed by him in connection with that election and in respect of which he is so examined, and such witness shall be entitled to receive a certificate of indemnity under the hand of the Registrar stating that he is freed and discharged from liability to prosecution for that offence;

(ii) an answer by a witness to a question before the court under this section shall not, except in the case of any criminal proceedings for giving false evidence in respect of such evidence, be admissible in any proceedings, civil or criminal, in evidence against him.

(3) Where a person has received a certificate of indemnity under subsection (2), and any legal proceedings are at any time brought against him for any offence to which such certificate relates, the court having cognisance of the case shall, on proof of the certificate of indemnity, stay such proceedings and may award to that person such costs as he may have been put to in such proceedings.

(4) All reasonable expenses incurred by any person in attending at or appearing before the court to give evidence as a witness at the trial of an election petition shall be allowed to such a person according to the scale of allowances and expenses appropriate in civil proceedings before the court. Provisions as to witnesses 29. (1) At the conclusion of the trial of an election petition, the court shall determine whether the respondent, any other and which person, was duly elected, or whether the election to which the petition election petition relates was void, and the Registrar shall, as soon as may be, submit a copy of such determination to the Commission and to the principal officer of the council to which the petition relates.

(2) Where the court determines under subsection (1) that the respondent was duly elected, such election shall be and remain valid.

(3) Where the court determines under subsection (1) that the respondent was not duly elected but that some other person was duly elected, such other person shall be deemed to have been elected accordingly.

(4) Where the court determines under subsection (1) that the respondent was not duly elected, and that no other person was duly elected at the election concerned, the vacancy in the membership of the council in respect of which that election was held shall be deemed to continue until duly filled.

(5) Where a determination under subsection (1) alters the result of an election as previously declared, it shall be the duty of the Commission to publish the result as so altered in the Gazette .

(6) Where it appears to the court upon the trial of an election petition that any corrupt practice or illegal practice has been committed by any person in connection with the election to which such election petition relates, the court shall, at the conclusion of the proceedings, prepare a report stating-

(a) the evidence given in the proceedings in respect of such corrupt practice or illegal practice;

(b) the names and particulars of any person by whom such corrupt practice or illegal practice was, in the opinion of the court, committed: Provided that the court shall not state the name of any person under this paragraph unless such person has been given an opportunity of appearing before the court and of showing cause why his name should not be stated.

(7) The Registrar shall deliver a copy of every report prepared by the court under subsection (6) to-

(a) the Commission; and

(b) the Director of Public Prosecutions. Conclusion of trial of election petition

30. (1) Subject to the other provisions of this section, all costs, to costs charges and expenses of and incidental to the presentation and trial of an election petition shall be borne in such manner and in such proportions as the court may order, and in particular, any costs which in the opinion of the court have been caused by any vexatious conduct or by any frivolous or vexatious allegations or objections on the part of the petitioner or of the respondent, may be ordered to be paid by the party by whom such costs have been caused.

(2) Where, on the trial of an election petition, the court determines that the respondent was not duly elected and is of the opinion, having regard to the circumstances, that it would be just and reasonable to relieve any party to the election petition from all or a portion of the costs thereof, then-

(a) if the court finds that the election of the respondent was due to a mistake or improper performance or failure of performance of any function bona fide made by any election officer, it may, after sufficient notice to the Attorney-General show cause to the contrary, make such order as to the payment by the state of the costs of the proceedings or a portion thereof, as it may consider proper;

(b) if the court finds that the election of the respondent was due to a mistake or improper performance or failure of performance of any function mala fide made by an election officer, it may, after sufficient notice, to such officer to show cause to the contrary, make such order as to the payment by such election officer of the costs of the proceedings or a portion thereof, as it may consider proper.

(3) The court may, on application made by any person to whom any costs, charges or expenses are payable under this Act, order the costs, charges or expenses to be paid out of any deposit made to secure the costs, charges or expenses or by any surety who gave a recognisance to secure the costs, charges or expenses: Provided that notice of such application shall be given, in such manner as may be prescribed by rules under section twenty- three, to the party by or on whose behalf such deposit was made or for whom such surety gave a recognisance, requiring such party, or such surety and such party, as the case may be, to state, within such time and in such manner as may be so prescribed, whether he resists the application.

(4) Where, on the trial of an election petition, any person appears to the court to have been guilty of any corrupt practice or illegal practice relating to the election which is the subject of such election petition, the court may, after giving that person an opportunity of making a statement to show why the order should not be made, order the whole or a portion of the costs of or incidental to the trial of such election petition to be paid by the said person to such person or persons as the court may determine.

(5) Execution may be levied under any order for payment made by the court under this section in the same manner and to the same extent as execution may be levied under a judgement for the payment of money.

(6) Money deposited as security shall, when no longer needed as security for costs, be returned to the person in whose name it is deposited or to any person entitled to receive the money by order of the court, which may be made upon motion after notice and proof that all just claims have been satisfied or otherwise sufficiently provided for as the court may require.
