(3) The register of electors in operation in accordance with the Parliamentary Elections Act at the time of any election shall be conclusive evidence for the purpose of determining whether a person is or is not entitled to vote at the election.

(4) The right of voting of any person whose name is for the time being contained in the register shall not be prejudiced by any appeal pending before a Revising Officer in respect of the inclusion of that person's name in the register.

(5) Any vote given by the person mentioned in subsection (4) during the pendency of that appeal shall be as good as though no such appeal were pending and shall not be affected by the subsequent decision of the appeal.

(6) For the purposes of this section, "Revising Officer" means a Revising Officer appointed under section 12 of the Parliamentary Elections Act.

Admittance to polling station

22.—(1) Subject to subsections (2) and (3A), no person shall be admitted to vote at any polling station except the one allotted to him.

(2) Where an elector for any electoral division is employed as a presiding officer, police officer, or in any other official capacity at a polling station, and it is inconvenient for him to vote at the polling station which has been allotted to him, the Returning Officer may, by a certificate authorise the elector to vote at any other polling station and that polling station shall, for the purposes of this section, be deemed to be the polling station allotted to that elector.

(3) The certificate referred to in subsection (2) shall be given under the hand of the Returning Officer and shall state the name of the elector, his number, and description in the register of electors, and the fact that he is so employed as a presiding officer, police officer or in any other official capacity at a polling station.

(3A) An overseas elector shall also be entitled to be admitted to vote at the overseas polling station allotted to him by the Registration Officer under section 13A(3) of the Parliamentary Elections Act (Cap. 218).

[19/2001]

(4) Unless the Returning Officer, by notification in the Gazette under this section, section 33C(3)(b) or 36C, appoints any other hour, the poll shall open at 8 a.m. on the day appointed under section 16(5) and shall close at 8 p.m. on that day.

[19/2001; 11/2010]

(5) The presiding officer shall —

- (a) keep order in his polling station;
- (b) regulate the number of voters to be admitted at a time; and
- (c) exclude all other persons except the candidates, the polling agent or agents of each candidate, the Returning Officer and persons authorised in writing by the Returning Officer, the police officers on duty and other persons officially employed at the polling station.

(6) Not more than one polling agent of each candidate shall be admitted to any polling station, except that where, at any polling station, more polling places than one have been established, not more than one polling agent of each candidate shall be admitted to each such polling place.

(7) A polling agent whose name has not been notified to the presiding officer as required by section 45(1B) shall not be admitted to a polling station.

(8) If any person misconducts himself in the polling station or fails to obey the lawful orders of the presiding officer, he may immediately by order of the presiding officer be removed from the polling station by any police officer in or near that station or by any other person authorised in writing by the presiding officer or by the Returning Officer to remove him.

(9) The person removed under subsection (8) shall not, unless with the permission of the presiding officer, again be allowed to enter the polling station.

(10) Any person removed under subsection (8) may, if charged with the commission in a polling station of any offence, be kept in custody until he can be brought before a magistrate.

(11) The powers conferred by this section shall not be exercised so as to prevent any elector who is otherwise entitled to vote at any polling station from having an opportunity of voting at that station.

Voting by overseas electors

22A.—(1) Subject to section 52, any overseas elector who intends to cast his vote at the poll for a contested election may vote at —

- (a) the overseas polling station allotted to him by the Registration Officer under section 13A of the Parliamentary Elections Act (Cap. 218); or
- (b) the polling station in the electoral division allotted to him under section 18(1), but not at both in respect of the same election.

[19/2001; 14/2008]

(2) The hours of any poll for any contested election at an overseas polling station shall be not less than 4 hours and may be carried out in advance of the poll on polling day in Singapore, except that every such poll at an overseas polling station shall close not later than the close of the poll on polling day in Singapore.

[19/2001; 14/2008]

(3) Except as otherwise provided in this section and any regulations made thereunder, any poll (including an advance poll) at an overseas polling station shall be conducted in the same manner as that in which voting at a polling station within Singapore on polling day is conducted, and shall be regarded as such for the purposes of this Act.

[19/2001]

(4) The Minister may make regulations modifying the application of any provision of this Act to the conduct of polls in overseas polling stations, including in particular, the appointment of presiding officers for overseas polling stations, the procedures on closing of the poll and for the safe despatch of the sealed ballot boxes containing the votes cast to the Returning Officer in Singapore.

[19/2001]

(5) Unless the contrary intention appears therefrom, the regulations made under subsection (4) shall extend to acts done or omitted to be done outside Singapore by —

- (a) any Assistant Returning Officer or presiding officer;
- (b) any polling agent or election agent; or
- (c) any citizen of Singapore (whether or not a voter or an elector), in relation to a poll conducted or to be conducted at an overseas polling station.

[14/2008]

Poll by ballot and ballot papers

23.—(1) In the case of a poll at an election not using a DRE voting system, the votes shall be given by ballot, and the ballot of each voter shall consist of a paper (referred to in this Act as a ballot paper).

[19/2001]

(2) Every ballot paper shall —

- (a) contain a list of the candidates in English, described, subject to section 11(5) and (6), as in their respective nomination papers, and arranged alphabetically in English in the order of their surnames, and, if there are 2 or more such candidates with the same surname, of their other names, and the symbol allotted to each candidate;

- (b) be in the prescribed form;
- (c) be capable of being folded;
- (d) have a number printed on the back; and
- (e) have attached a counterfoil with the same number printed on the face.

(3) The official mark for the authentication of ballot papers shall comprise a pattern, design, watermark or logo approved by the Returning Officer which shall be affixed, stamped, overprinted or marked (by writing or otherwise), or any combination thereof, on the ballot paper in a particular manner approved by the Returning Officer.

Ballot boxes

24.—(1) Every ballot box shall be so constructed that the ballot papers can be introduced into the box after it has been sealed or locked but cannot be withdrawn from the box unless the seal or lock is broken.

[42/96]

(2) The presiding officer at a polling station shall, immediately before the commencement of the poll, and in the sight of such person as may be present in the polling station —

- (a) show that each ballot box to be used at the commencement of the poll is empty;
- (b) close the ballot box; and
- (c) ensure that the ballot box is sealed or locked in such a manner as to prevent it being opened without breaking the seal or lock.

[42/96]

(3) The ballot boxes, after being sealed or locked in accordance with subsection (2), shall be kept in the view of the presiding officer of the polling station for the receipt of ballot papers and shall not be opened again until after the close of the poll.

[42/96]

(4) Subsections (2) and (3) shall apply to every ballot box used during a poll and it shall be sufficient compliance with those subsections if a ballot box, other than a ballot box used at the commencement of a poll, is shown and sealed or locked in accordance with subsection (2) before it is used.

[42/96]

Manner of voting

25.—(1) Each voter entitled to vote shall be given one ballot paper and shall have one vote.

(2) The ballot paper shall be delivered to the voter by the presiding officer or a person acting under his authority.

(3) Immediately before any ballot paper is delivered to a voter —

- (a) the ballot paper shall, unless it already bears the complete official mark for the authentication of ballot papers, be affixed, stamped or marked (by writing or otherwise) by the presiding officer in the approved manner with that official mark or the remaining part thereof or initialled by the presiding officer;
- (b) the number, name and description of the voter, as stated in the copy of the register of electors, shall be called out;
- (c) the number of the elector shall be marked on the counterfoil; and
- (d) a mark shall be placed in the register against the number of the elector to denote that he has received a ballot paper but without showing the particular ballot paper which he has received.

[18/99]

(4) The voter shall, on receiving the ballot paper, immediately proceed to such place in the station as may be indicated by the presiding officer or by any person acting under that officer's authority, and shall there secretly mark the paper as near as may be in accordance with the directions given for the guidance of voters under this Act.

(4A) The voter shall then fold the paper so as to conceal his vote, and shall put the paper so folded up into the ballot box.

(5) Every voter shall vote without undue delay and shall quit the polling station as soon as he has put his ballot paper into the ballot box.

(6) The presiding officer or any person authorised by him may ask any voter if the voter understands the method of voting in accordance with this Act and may, if he thinks fit, on the application of any voter, explain to the voter, in the presence of the polling agents of the candidates if present, the method of voting in accordance with this Act; but in so doing he shall carefully abstain from any action which might be construed by the voter as advice or a direction to vote for any candidate.

(7) The presiding officer, on the application of a voter who is incapacitated by blindness or other physical cause from voting in the manner prescribed by this Act, shall mark the ballot paper of the voter in the manner directed by the voter, and shall cause the ballot paper to be placed in the ballot box.

(8) The presiding officer may, at any time while a poll is proceeding, take such steps as may be necessary to ensure that no voter delays unduly in any place reserved for the marking of ballot papers.

(9) During the taking of the poll, the presiding officer shall cause to be exhibited outside his polling station a notice, in English, Malay, Chinese and Tamil, substantially in the prescribed form, giving directions for the guidance of voters in voting.

Compulsory voting

26.—(1) Every elector shall record his vote at each election in the electoral division for which he is registered.

(2) The Returning Officer shall, at the close of each election, prepare a list of the numbers, names and descriptions as stated in the register of electors of such electors who have failed to vote at the election and certify the list under his hand.

(3) Notwithstanding section 32(10) and (12), it shall be lawful for the Returning Officer to break the seals of packets containing the marked copies of the registers of electors and to inspect and retain those copies for the purpose of preparing the list referred to in subsection (2) and of any inquiries connected therewith.

(4) The list prepared by the Returning Officer under subsection (2) shall be forwarded by the Returning Officer to the Registration Officer.

(5) The Registration Officer shall on receipt of such list cause the names of all persons appearing in the list to be expunged from the register of electors.

(6) The Registration Officer shall give notice in the Gazette that such list has been received by him from the Returning Officer and that the list or copies thereof are open for inspection at all reasonable hours of the day at the office of the Registration Officer and at such other place or places in or near each electoral division and at such overseas registration centres as may be specified in the notice.

(7) Every person whose name appears on the list of which notice has been given by the Registration Officer under subsection (6) may make a written application for the restoration of his name to the register of electors.

(8) If any applicant under subsection (7) satisfies the Registration Officer that he has a good and sufficient reason for not having recorded his vote, his name shall be restored to the register without penalty, but where the applicant does not so satisfy the Registration Officer, his name shall be restored to the register on payment to the Registration Officer of a sum of $50.

[11/2010]

(9) Any name to be restored to the register under subsection (8) shall, except as otherwise provided in subsection (11), be restored the day after the Registration Officer has satisfied himself that the applicant has a good and sufficient reason for not recording his vote or the day after the payment of the sum of $50 to the Registration Officer, as the case may be.

[11/2010]

(10) Where any person whose name is to be restored to the register under subsection (8) has notified the Commissioner of National Registration of any change in his address and it appears from such change of address that he is no longer residing in the same electoral division, his name shall be restored to the appropriate register of the electoral division in which he is residing.

(11) Where a writ of election has been issued under section 6 for an election, no name shall be restored to the register until after nomination day or, if a poll is to be taken, until after polling day.

Declarations by voters

27.—(1) The presiding officer at any polling station may, in his discretion, require any voter, before he is given a ballot paper, to furnish such evidence of his identity as the presiding officer may consider necessary and to make and subscribe all or any of the prescribed declarations.

(2) Every such declaration shall be exempt from stamp duty.

(3) If any person fails to furnish such evidence of his identity or refuses to make any prescribed declaration, the presiding officer may refuse to give him a ballot paper.

(4) If any person wilfully makes a false statement in any prescribed declaration, he shall be guilty of an offence and shall be liable on conviction to a fine not exceeding $1,500 or to imprisonment for a term not exceeding 9 months or to both.

Spoilt ballot papers

28.—(1) A voter who has inadvertently dealt with his ballot paper in such manner that it cannot be conveniently used as a ballot paper may, on delivering to the presiding officer the ballot paper so inadvertently dealt with, and proving the fact of the inadvertence to the satisfaction of the presiding officer, obtain another ballot paper in place of the ballot paper so delivered up (referred to in this Act as a spoilt ballot paper).

(2) The spoilt ballot paper shall be immediately cancelled by the presiding officer.

Tendered votes

29.—(1) If a person representing himself to be a particular elector named in the register applies for a ballot paper after another person has voted as such elector, the applicant, on taking an oath of identity which may be administered by the presiding officer and which shall be in the prescribed form, shall be entitled to receive a ballot paper and to vote in the same manner as any other voter.

(2) The ballot paper (referred to in this Act as a tendered ballot paper) shall be of a colour different from the other ballot papers, and, before being placed in a ballot box, shall be endorsed by the presiding officer with the name of the voter and his number in the register, and that number shall be entered on a tendered votes list.

Closing of poll

30. No ballot paper shall be delivered to a voter after the hour fixed for the closing of the poll, except that if at that hour there is in the polling station any voter to whom a ballot paper has been delivered, the voter shall be allowed to record his vote.

Procedure on closing of poll

31.—(1) As soon as practicable after the close of the poll, the presiding officer of each polling station shall, in the presence of such of the candidates and their polling agents as attend, make up into separate packets, sealed with his own seal and the seals of the candidates or their agents if they desire to affix their seals —

- (a) the unused and spoilt ballot papers placed together;
- (b) the marked copies of the register of electors;
- (c) the counterfoils of the ballot papers; and
- (d) the tendered votes list.

(2) The ballot box or boxes unopened shall be secured by the presiding officer and sealed with his seal and with the seals of such of the candidates or their agents as attend and desire to affix their seals, in such manner that the box or boxes cannot be opened and nothing can be inserted therein without breaking the seals.

(3) Every presiding officer of a polling station shall despatch each such packet and the ballot box or boxes in safe custody to the Returning Officer at the counting place where the votes cast at the polling station are to be counted in accordance with the provisions of this Act.

(4) Where the Returning Officer has in any direction made under section 31A(1) specified a polling station to be a counting place, the presiding officer of the polling station shall keep at that station every such packet and ballot box in safe custody pending counting of the votes thereat.

Counting at counting places

31A.—(1) The Returning Officer may direct —

- (a) that the votes cast at any polling station or stations in Singapore be counted at such time and counting place (which may or may not be a polling station) as he may specify; and
- (b) where more than one counting place is specified under paragraph (a), that the total number of votes given to each candidate at the poll be ascertained at such other time and place (referred to in this Act as the principal counting place) as he may specify.

[12/93; 19/2001]

(1A) The votes cast at all overseas polling stations shall be counted at such place or places in Singapore as the Returning Officer directs.

[19/2001]

(2) The Returning Officer shall give notice in writing of his direction under subsection (1) or (1A) to each candidate or his principal election agent not less than 2 clear days before polling day.

[12/93; 18/99; 19/2001]

(3) Where polling at all polling stations established for the purposes of a poll is postponed under section 36C, the conduct of the counting of votes cast for the election shall stand postponed until such other time as the Returning Officer, by notice in writing to each candidate or his principal election agent, shall specify.

[11/2010]

(4) Where polling at any polling station established for the purposes of a poll is temporarily suspended, adjourned and postponed or abandoned and re-started under section 36C, the conduct of the count in respect of votes cast at the other polling stations which are specified in the direction under this section to be counted at the same counting place as votes cast at the first-mentioned polling station shall, even though the poll at the other polling stations has closed, stand postponed until such other time as the Returning Officer, by notice in writing to each candidate or his principal election agent, shall specify.

Counting votes

32.—(1) Each candidate or any of his election agents may appoint an agent (referred to in this Act as the counting agent) to attend the counting of the votes and shall give written notice of the name and address of the counting agent so appointed to the Returning Officer.

[18/99]

(2) Each candidate or any of his election agents may appoint not more than one counting agent to attend the counting of votes at each counting place specified in the direction made under section 31A(1).

[12/93; 18/99]

(2A) The Returning Officer shall make arrangements for counting the votes in the presence of such of the candidates and their counting agents as attend as soon as practicable —

- (a) where only one counting place is specified in a direction made under section 31A(1) — after he has received all the ballot boxes used during the poll conducted in Singapore; or
- (b) where more than one counting place is specified in a direction made under section 31A(1), after —
 - (i) the procedure in section 31 has been complied with at the close of the poll if the counting place is also a polling station; and
 - (ii) the Assistant Returning Officer in charge of each counting place has received at his counting place all the ballot boxes containing the votes cast at the polling station or stations in Singapore which are specified in the direction to be counted at that counting place, subject to any directions from the Returning Officer to delay or postpone the counting.

(3) The Returning Officer, his assistants and clerks, and the candidates and their counting agents, but no other persons except with the sanction of the Returning Officer, may be present at the counting of the votes.

(4) Before the Returning Officer proceeds to count the votes, he or a person authorised by him shall, in the presence of such of the candidates and their counting agents as attend, open each ballot box and, taking out the papers therein, mix together the whole of the ballot papers contained in the ballot boxes.

(5) The Returning Officer, while counting the votes, shall keep the ballot papers with their faces upwards and take all proper precautions for preventing any person from seeing the numbers printed on the backs of the papers.

(6) The Returning Officer shall so far as practicable proceed continuously with counting the votes and shall endorse “rejected” on any ballot paper which he may reject as invalid.

(7) The Returning Officer shall not count the tendered ballot papers but shall place them in separate packets according to the candidate whom they support and shall mark each packet with the name of the candidate and shall seal the packet and retain it unless it is required for the purposes of an application under section 71.

(8) Where only one counting place is specified in a direction made under section 31A(1), the Returning Officer shall, when the counting of votes cast at all polling stations in Singapore is completed at the sole counting place or, if a recount thereof is allowed under section 32B, after that recount is completed, immediately act as follows:

- (a) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election is less than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidate to whom the greatest number of votes is given to be elected; or

- (b) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election is equal to or more than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the number of votes cast in Singapore in favour of each candidate at the election, and the date and premises at which the votes cast by the overseas electors will be counted.

[19/2001]

(8A) Where more than one counting place is specified in a direction made under section 31A(1), the Returning Officer shall, immediately after the counting of votes cast in Singapore is completed at the counting place under his charge and, if a recount thereof is allowed under section 32B, after that recount is completed, at each counting place —

- (a) announce to the candidates or their counting agents as attend the number of votes given to each candidate;
- (b) prepare a record (referred to in this Act as the record of counting) in a prescribed form containing the number of votes given to each candidate and other results of the counting of votes at his counting place, and certify that record;
- (c) transmit to the principal counting place, by any means available, the results of the counting of votes at his counting place; and
- (d) seal up in an envelope the record of counting and despatch or deliver the envelope in safe custody to the principal counting place for that electoral division.

[12/93; 42/96; 19/2001]

(8B) Except with the sanction of the Returning Officer, no person other than —

- (a) the Returning Officer and such other officers and staff appointed by him to assist him in adding the votes cast for each candidate at the counting places and ascertaining the total number of votes given to each candidate at the poll; and may be present at the principal counting place during the addition of the votes.

(b) the candidates and their principal election agents,

[12/93; 18/99]

(8C) At the principal counting place, the Returning Officer shall, upon receipt of the results of the counting of votes at all counting places, ascertain the total number of votes given to each candidate at the poll by adding up the number of votes recorded for each candidate in the said results.

(8D) When the total number of votes cast at polling stations in Singapore for each candidate at an election is ascertained under subsection (8C), or if a recount thereof is allowed under section 32B, after that recount is completed, the Returning Officer shall immediately act as follows:

- (a) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election is less than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the candidate to whom the greatest number of votes is given to be elected; or
- (b) where the total number of overseas electors lawfully entitled to vote at the election is equal to or more than the difference between the number of votes given to the candidates with the 2 greatest number of votes, the Returning Officer shall declare the number of votes cast in Singapore in favour of each candidate at the election, and the date and premises at which the votes cast by the overseas electors will be counted.

(9) When, after the counting of votes (including any recount allowed under section 32B) is completed, an equality of votes is found to exist between any candidates, and the addition of a vote would entitle any of the candidates to be declared elected, the determination of the candidate to whom the one additional vote shall be deemed to have been given shall be made by lot in the presence of the Returning Officer in such manner as the Returning Officer shall determine.

(10) After the Returning Officer has made any declaration under subsection (8) or (8D), he shall ensure that the following procedures are complied with at every counting place and principal counting place:

- (a) all ballot papers and all other documents relating to the election at every counting place and principal counting place shall be sealed up in separate packets and placed in any ballot box or boxes;
- (b) the ballot box or boxes shall then be sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer and the seals of such of the candidates or their counting agents as attend and desire to affix their seals;
- (c) the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be despatched and delivered in safe custody to the Returning Officer;
- (d) subject to subsection (11), the ballot papers and other documents in the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be retained in safe custody for a period of 6 months; and
- (e) the ballot papers and other documents shall be destroyed at the end of the period of 6 months unless otherwise directed by order of the President.

(11) An Election Judge may make an order that any ballot paper or other document relating to an election which has been sealed as required by this Act be inspected, copied or produced at such time and place and subject to such conditions as the Judge may consider expedient.

(11A) No Election Judge shall make such an order unless he is satisfied that the inspection, copy or production is required for the purpose of instituting or maintaining a prosecution or an application under section 71 in connection with the election.

[12/93; 42/2005]

(12) Except as provided in this section, no person shall be allowed to inspect any such ballot paper or document after it has been sealed up in pursuance of subsection (10).

Counting of votes by overseas electors

32A.—(1) All the sealed ballot boxes containing the votes cast at any overseas polling station must arrive at the office of the Returning Officer in Singapore not later than 10 days after polling day at an election in order for those votes to be counted.

[19/2001]

(2) The Returning Officer shall make arrangements for the votes cast by overseas electors to be counted at such place or places in Singapore as he directs under section 31A(1A).

[19/2001]

(3) Subject to subsection (1), such arrangements shall provide for the counting of votes cast by overseas electors in the presence of the candidates and their counting agents as attend as soon as practicable after all the sealed ballot boxes used at overseas polling stations during the poll have been received by the Returning Officer in Singapore.

[19/2001]

(4) Sections 32, 32B and 33 shall apply to the counting (including recounting, if any) of the votes cast by overseas electors.

[19/2001]

(5) Where the Returning Officer has made a declaration under section 32(8)(b) or (8D)(b), the number of votes given by overseas electors to each candidate shall be added to the number declared by the Returning Officer as the number of votes cast in Singapore, respectively, for each candidate, and the Returning Officer shall immediately declare the candidate to whom the greatest total number of votes is given to be elected.

[19/2001]

(6) After the Returning Officer has made any declaration under subsection (5), he shall ensure that the following procedures are complied with:

- (a) all ballot papers and all other documents relating to the election at every place where the votes of overseas electors are counted shall be sealed up in separate packets and placed in any ballot box or boxes;

- (b) the ballot box or boxes shall then be sealed with the seal of the Returning Officer and the seals of such of the candidates or their counting agents as attend and desire to affix their seals;
- (c) the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be despatched and delivered in safe custody to the Returning Officer;
- (d) subject to section 32(11), the ballot papers and other documents in the sealed ballot box or boxes shall be retained in safe custody for a period of 6 months; and
- (e) the ballot papers and other documents shall be destroyed at the end of the period of 6 months unless otherwise directed by order of the President.

[19/2001]

Recounting of votes

32B.—(1) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), any candidate at an election or his counting agent may —

- (a) if he is present at the sole counting place specified for the election and the counting of votes at that counting place is completed; or
- (b) if he is present at the principal counting place specified for the election and the votes counted at all counting places for that election have been added at that principal counting place, apply to the Returning Officer to have the votes given at the election recounted.

[19/2001]

(2) Subject to subsections (3) and (4), the Returning Officer shall allow and conduct the recounting of votes if an application for a recount is made under this section.

[19/2001]

(3) Not more than one application to recount the votes given at any election shall be made or allowed under this section.

[19/2001]

(4) Without prejudice to subsection (3), no application for a recount shall be made and no recount shall be allowed under this section where the difference between the number of votes given to the candidate with the most votes and the number cast for any other candidate is more than 2% of the total number of votes cast (excluding rejected votes and tendered votes) at the election.

[19/2001]

(5) No step shall be taken under section 32 to declare any candidate elected until the candidates or counting agents present at the sole counting place or the principal counting place, as the case may be, have been given a reasonable opportunity to exercise the right conferred by this section.

[19/2001]

(6) Where an application for a recounting of votes is allowed by the Returning Officer, the votes at the counting place or, if there are more than one, at every counting place shall be recounted and added following the same procedure set out in sections 32 and 33.

[19/2001]

(7) This section and section 33 shall apply to the recounting of votes cast by overseas electors with such modifications as are necessary.

[19/2001]

Votes to be rejected

33.—(1) The Returning Officer shall reject as invalid the following ballot papers only:

- (a) any ballot paper which does not bear the complete official mark for the authentication of ballot papers or is not initialled by the presiding officer;
- (b) any ballot paper on which votes are given for more than one candidate;
- (c) any ballot paper on which anything is written or marked by which the voter can be identified except the printed number on the back;

- (d) any ballot paper which is unmarked; and
- (e) any ballot paper which is void for uncertainty.

[18/99]

(2) Where the Returning Officer is satisfied that any mark made on a ballot paper clearly indicates the intention of the voter and the candidate for whom he gives his vote, the Returning Officer shall not reject the ballot paper on the ground solely that it has not been marked in all respects in accordance with the directions given for the guidance of voters under this Act.

(3) Before rejecting a ballot paper, the Returning Officer shall show it to each candidate or his counting agent if present and hear his views thereon, taking all proper precautions to prevent any person from seeing the number printed on the back of the paper.

(4) The decision of the Returning Officer whether or not any ballot paper shall be rejected shall be final and shall not be questioned on an application under section 71.

Approval of DRE voting systems

33A.—(1) No DRE voting system shall be used at any poll unless the DRE voting system is approved before the date of the writ of the election under section 6 by —

- (a) the Auditor-General; or

*Chapter 4Excuse for Corrupt and Illegal PracticeReport exonerating candidate in certain cases of corrupt and illegal practice by agents

68. Where, upon the hearing of an application under section 71 respecting an election under this Act, the Election Judge reports that a candidate at the election has been guilty by his agents of the offence of treating or undue influence or of any illegal practice in reference to the election, and the Election Judge further reports, after giving the Public Prosecutor an opportunity of being heard, that the candidate has proved to the court —

- (a) that no corrupt or illegal practice was committed at the election by the candidate or any of his election agents and the offences mentioned in the report were committed contrary to the orders and without the sanction or connivance of the candidate or any of his election agents;
- (b) that the candidate and his election agents took all reasonable means for preventing the commission of corrupt and illegal practices at the election;
- (c) that the offences mentioned in the said report were of a trivial, unimportant and limited character; and
- (d) that in all other respects the election was free from any corrupt or illegal practice on the part of the candidate and of his agents, then the election of the candidate shall not, by reason of the offences mentioned in the report, be void.

[18/99; 42/2005]

Power of Election Judge to except innocent act from being illegal practice, etc.

69.—(1) Where, on application made, it is shown to an Election Judge by such evidence as seems to the Judge sufficient —

- (a) that any act or omission of a candidate at any election, or of his election agents or of any other agent or person, would, by reason of being the payment of a sum or the incurring of expense in excess of any maximum amount allowed by this Act, or of being a payment, engagement, employment, or contract in contravention of this Act, or of otherwise being in contravention of any of the provisions of this Act, be but for this section an illegal practice; and

- (b) that the act or omission arose from inadvertence or from accidental miscalculations or from some other reasonable cause of a like nature, and in any case did not arise from any want of good faith, and in the circumstances it seems to the Judge, after giving the candidates, the Returning Officer, and any elector an opportunity of being heard, to be just that the candidate in question and the election and other agent and person, or any of them, should not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of that act or omission, the Judge may make an order allowing that act or omission to be an exception from the provisions of this Act which would otherwise make the act or omission an illegal practice, payment, employment or hiring.

(2) Upon the making of an order under subsection (1), the candidate, agent or person shall not be subject to any of the consequences under this Act of the act or omission mentioned in that subsection.

Authorised excuse for non-compliance with provisions as to return and declaration respecting election expenses

70.—(1) Where the return and statements respecting election expenses of a candidate at an election have not been transmitted as required by this Act, or being transmitted contain some error or false statement, then —

- (a) if the candidate applies to an Election Judge and shows that the failure to transmit the return and declarations, or any of them, or any part thereof, or any error or false statement therein, has arisen by reason of his illness, or of the absence, death, illness or misconduct of his principal election agent or of any election agent or any clerk or officer of the agent, or by reason of inadvertence or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the applicant; or

- (b) if the principal election agent of the candidate applies to an Election Judge and shows that the failure to transmit the return and statements which he was required to transmit, or any part thereof, or any error or false statement therein, arose by reason of his illness, or of the death, illness or misconduct of any prior principal election agent of the candidate, or of the absence, death, illness or misconduct of any election agent or any clerk, or officer of an election agent of the candidate, or by reason of inadvertence or of any reasonable cause of a like nature, and not by reason of any want of good faith on the part of the applicant, the Election Judge may, after such notice of the application, and on production of such evidence of the grounds stated in the application, and of the good faith of the application, and otherwise, as to the Election Judge seems fit, and after giving the other candidates, the Returning Officer and any elector an opportunity of being heard, make such order for allowing an authorised excuse for the failure to transmit such return and statements, or for an error or false statement in such return and statements as to the Election Judge seems just.

(2) Where it appears to the Election Judge that any person being or having been an election agent has refused or failed to make such return or supply such particulars as will enable any candidate and his principal election agent, respectively, to comply with the provisions of this Act as to the return and statements respecting election expenses, the Election Judge shall —

- (a) before making an order allowing the excuse mentioned in this section, order the person to attend before the Election Judge; and
- (b) unless the person attends and shows cause to the contrary, order the person to make the return and statements, or to deliver a statement of the particulars required to be contained in the return, as to the Election Judge appears just, and to make or deliver them within such time and to such other person and in such manner as the Election Judge may direct, or may order the person to be examined with respect to those particulars, and, in default of compliance with that order, the person shall be guilty of an illegal practice.

(3) The order may make the allowance conditional upon the making of the return and statements in a modified form or within an extended time, and upon the compliance with such other terms as to the Election Judge seems best calculated for carrying into effect the objects of this Act.

(4) An order allowing an authorised excuse shall relieve the applicant for the order from any liability or consequences under this Act in respect of the matter excused by the order.

(5) Where it is proved by the candidate to the Election Judge that any act or omission of the principal election agent in relation to the return and statements respecting election expenses was without the sanction or connivance of the candidate, and that the candidate took all reasonable means for preventing the act or omission, the Election Judge shall relieve the candidate from the consequences of the act or omission on the part of his principal election agent.

[18/99]

(6) The date of the order or, if conditions and terms are to be complied with, the date at which the applicant fully complies with them is referred to in this Act as the date of the allowance of the excuse.

PART IV

GROUND FOR AVOIDING ELECTIONS

Application for avoidance of election on certain grounds

71. The election of a candidate as President shall be declared to be void on an application made to an Election Judge on any of the following grounds which may be proved to the satisfaction of the Election Judge:

whether similar to those before enumerated or not, the majority of electors were or may have been prevented from electing the candidate whom they preferred;

- (b) non-compliance with the provisions of this Act relating to elections, if it appears that the election was not conducted in accordance with the principles laid down in those provisions and that the non-compliance affected the result of the election;
- (c) that a corrupt practice or illegal practice was committed in connection with the election by the candidate or with his knowledge or consent or by any agent of the candidate;
- (d) that the candidate personally engaged a person as his election agent, or as a canvasser or agent, knowing that the person had, within 7 years prior to such engagement, been convicted or found guilty of a corrupt practice under this Act or the Parliamentary Elections Act (Cap. 218);
